FROM FORTRESS MONROE. FORTHESS MONROE, July 9 .- An effort was made yesterday to raise the old United States frigate Congress, which was sunk off Newport News in the spring of 1862 by the rebel rain Merrimac. Three steam pumps were set at work upon her at two o'clock; and in one hour succeeded in exhausting three feet of the water from the frigate below the tide line outside. At this time, unfortunately, the largest of the three pumps gave out, and the work had to be discontinued in order to repair damages. It is believed she will be raised within a few to-day. The propeller Miss Wood is now employed as quarantine guard-boat at the entrance of Hampton Roads. Dr. Casey is the examining physician. The steamer General Meigs. Captain Watson, from New York, has arrived. She reports that off Barnegat Light an unknown propeller run into her and immediately left without re-porting. The schooner J. L. Beverly, from New York; the schooner A. Cordery, from Bal-timore for Boston with coal, and the schooner E. A. Anderson, from New York for City Point, arrived to-day. The latter reports having lost her main sail yesterday.

EXCITEMENT IN ALBANY, N. Y. Outrageous Assault on two Young Girls-Pwo of the Miscreants Punished in open

Court-One of them Attempts Suicide. ALBANY, July 10 .- Much excitement prevails at East Albany this p. m., by the shooting of a prisoner in the Police Court room.

Last Friday afternoon, two girls, Ann and Bridget Burns went to the woods to pick berries, when they were seized by four men, who repeatedly violated their persons. Bridget is but fifteen years old, and cannot live, it is said. Soon after the crime had become publicly known, Lewis Major, aged about forty years, and his son were arrested, and recognized by the girls as two or their assailants. This after-noon they were taken before the Police Court for a preliminary examination, but these proceedings had scarcely opened, when the brother of the girls shot the eldest Major in the arm and leg. The mother of the girls followed the attack by striking Major a heavy blow with a hatchet on the head.

Young Burns and his mother were arrested, and Major was carried to his house, where a threatening mob was only deterred from resorting to lynch law by the presence of a strong police force. Major was formerly an engineer on the Hudson River railroad, but was discharged for misconduct. His son is said to be a notorious bounty jumper. Young Burns tried to stab himself but was prevented by the policeman.

The Murder of the Joyce Children. Beston, July 8.—Detective Jones and Heath arrested at Fort Independence yesterday John Stuart, who enlisted in the regular army a few days since, on suspicion of being the murderer of the Jayce children. He had resided near the scene of the murder, and was a notorious bounty-jumper, having joined and deserted from several regiments. The evidence against him is said to be very strong. He is a native of Ireland, and says he has a mother living in Pennsylvania.

the week opens with a continuance of the strong speculative feeling of last week. The leading railroad and miscellaneous stocks were yesterday in active demand, and a further advance of prices was realilized. The whole current of speculation is for an advance, and with the present plethora of money it seem inevitable that that result will be reached. Money is in good demand, but with an overflowing supply the market must be reported quite easy at fa5 per cent. on call, with large transactions at the lower rate. Gold is quiet. Cash gold is freely offered, but without drawing out buyers.

The feeling of the market appears to strongly predominate in favor of a steady decline.

From the Largest Manufacturing Chemists in the World.

I AM ACQUAINTED WITH MR. H. T. HELM-BOLD; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

Each proposal must be signed by the individual or firm making it, and must specify but one price for each article of the class bid for.

awarded.
Should a contractor refuse or neglect to furnish when required, any article or articles, the same may be purchased in open market, and if a greater price shall be paid therefor than is specified in the contract, the difference may be charged to the contractor in his next quarterly account.

The sujoined schedule specifies as nearly as can now be done, the amount, quality and description of the articles likely to be required.

The bids will be opened in the presence of any of the bidders who may be present, and will be canvassed separately for each of the classes specified below, and contracts for one or more of the classes awarded, as may be deemed most advantageous to the Department.

Proposals must be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and be endorsed "Proposals for Sta-
